

Investigative journalism

CONTENTS

Notes on contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	xi

PART I

Context	1
1 Introduction HUGO DE BURGH	3
Contacts: contact details of some organisations, sites and publications useful to investigative journalists STEVEN McINTOSH	23
2 The emergence of investigative journalism HUGO DE BURGH	32
3 Forty years: a tradition of investigative journalism HUGO DE BURGH	54
4 The Blair years: mediocracy and investigative journalism HUGO DE BURGH	70
5 Investigative journalism and blogs PAUL BRADSHAW	96
6 Investigative journalism and English law CHRIS HORRIE	114
7 The English Freedom of Information Act CHRIS HORRIE	130

CONTENTS

8	The practices of investigative journalism GAVIN MacFADYEN	138
9	Universities as evangelists of the watchdog role: teaching investigative journalism to undergraduates MARK HANNA	157
10	Investigative journalism and scholarship MICHAEL BROMLEY	174
PART II
Cases		189
11	From shadow boxing to Ghost Plane : English journalism and the War on Terror PAUL LASHMAR	191
12	High politics and low behaviour: Sunday Times Insight HUGO DE BURGH	215
13	Investigating corporate corruption: an example from BBC's File on Four HUGO DE BURGH	229
14	Panorama — investigative TV? IVOR GABER	243
15	Scrutinising social policy: an example from Channel 4's Dispatches HUGO DE BURGH	256
16	Journalism with attitude: the Daily Mail HUGO DE BURGH	272
17	Exposing miscarriages of justice: an example from BBC's Rough Justice HUGO DE BURGH	289
18	Local power and public accountability: an example from the East Midlands MARK D'ARCY	300

CONTENTS

19	Subterfuge, set-ups, stings and stunts: how red-tops go about their investigations ROY GREENSLADE	319
20	Pillaging the environmentalists: The Cook Report HUGO DE BURGH	340
21	Grave-digging: the case of 'the Cossacks' HUGO DE BURGH	358
22	Interfering with foreigners: An example from First Tuesday HUGO DE BURGH	371
	Index	385